Apple trees aren't supposed to grow in California. Which is a statement that would seem to have no relation to anything at this point, except for the fact that one is growing in the front yard of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coutant, 666 E. Sierra Madre boulevard. And nobody planted it.

The only clues are the facts that the house is about 12 years old and the tree is about 12 years old. Some workman during the construction of the house, perhaps a carpenter with "Johnny Appleseed" blood in his veins, may have been eating an apple.

Perhaps he didn't know that apple trees don't grow in southern California—when he tossed the core aside.

Mrs. John Rudbach tells us about her dog, Lulu, that goes next door to the Bill Schwartzes at the first sound of thunder.

The Schwartzes have cut a small opening at a rear door just large enough for their cat to get through. But Lulu, a large English setter, is always found inside the Schwartz home after a bit of thunder. In fact, she was there two mornings ago, even though no one could remember hearing the slightest rumble.

Until they checked up, that is. Seems a neighbor, awake during the night, mentioned that there had been "just the tiniest bit" of thunder. So Lulu has good ears—and the talents of a Houdini.

Nobody yet knows how she does it. Double-jointed?

Occasionally—but not often enough—people send us bits of human interest stuff, which we like except for the note of apology that sometimes comes with it. Too many people seem to think it's an immodest act to tell about themselves. But why?

We say, "Let's have less modesty, and more fun." In the column, that is.

School Board Plans Lease Of Classrooms

At Tuesday evening's meeting of the Trustees of Sierra Madre City School, the board authorized Superintendent Charles Skutt to arrange for the leasing of two class rooms from the Foothill Jewish Community Center for the coming school year. By renting two rooms, double sessions can be averted, according to Mr. Skutt.

The board also requested that the Salary Committee and the Professional Committee assist in deciding qualifications of personnel for tenure. Tenure becomes mandatory when attendance reaches 850, which appears imminent.

Further action included the resignation of Mrs. Margaret Culbertson, who resigned because of illness, and acceptance of the Davis property for recordation.

IN READER'S DIGEST

James N. Thurston of 601 Mariposa avenue is the recent recipient of a check from The Reader's Digest for an anecdote submitted to the magazine's department, "Life in These United States." Thurston's contribution appears in the May issue.

17 Community Groups Slated To Submit Fair Queen Choice

Sierra Madre, home of many queens of many events, Rose parades and Wistaria fetes, enters another contest for an outstanding beauty, with 17 local and neighboring organizations planning the nominations of candidates for queen of the Sierra Madre Community Fair, part of a community wide campaign to replace the city's out-moded swimming pool.

The Community Fair, June 9 through 14, is the next major activity in the local effort to finance a new pool without resorting to a bond issue. Besides paper and scrap drives during recent months, a $10-a-plate dinner was held at the Pasadena Athletic Club April 11.

The Canyon Pool in Sierra Madre attracted thousands of summer swimmers from San Gabriel Valley communities over a span of 24 years.

THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE to be decided through the ballots of Sierra Madre voters will be a majority of "yes" votes if these women have anything to say about it. Each one of them has been selected as a "captain" in her neighborhood to see that all those in favor of building a new school at Canon and Highland get out to the polls May 5. Meeting almost daily throughout the town for "Morning Coffees," they will continue their organizing right up to Election Day—as they were doing when this picture was taken recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bartel, 566 Manzanita. They are, from left to right: Mrs. Bartel, Mrs. George Feichtmann, Mrs. Mercer Duff, Mrs. Alexander Black, Mrs. Conrad Munson, Mrs. A. J. Dewey, Mrs. Foster Buckner, Mrs. Phillip Potter, Mrs. William Herrold (almost hidden), Mrs. Norman McDonald, Mrs. Jack Paschall, and Mrs. O. M. Abraham.

Traffic Accidents Cost Californians One Million a Day

Traffic accidents are costing Californians almost a million dollars a day, the California Highway Patrol has reported.

The sum is figured by multiplying $95,000, the estimated cost represented by one traffic fatality, by 10, which is the average daily traffic death toll in the state.

The sum also includes losses incurred in injury and property damage accidents. The Patrol said the state's traffic accident bill for 1952, with a provisional death toll of 3618, was $343,710,000.

Officials pointed out that last year's multi-million dollar burden was being shared by others than those directly involved in accidents, especially through higher insurance rates.

Roosevelt To Make Public Address Here

James Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to address the Sierra Madre Democratic Club at a public gathering May 18, according to an announcement at the club's last meeting Monday night.

Much of the club's agenda time was spent in discussing the forthcoming School Bond election, May 5. It was unanimously agreed that although there should be nothing political about such an election, the Democratic Club would endorse the bond issue.

"Practically every civic organization has endorsed the bond," said Mrs. Dan Parker. "This is a city of many children, and a vote against the schools would be a vote against the children. The bond must carry, or we shall be forced into half-day school sessions, which would be unfair to our children."

May 13 Set for First Annual Meet of Family Service Here

Plans for the first Annual Meeting of the Family Service Board of Sierra Madre were made recently by the Board at the home of Mrs. Dixie Tiller, 125 North Sunnyside.

The date for the annual event was set for May 13, at the home of Mrs. George Osborn, 580 Wilcox road, beginning at 7:45 p.m. All residents interested in Family Service are invited.

At that time, a short business meeting will be conducted. Speaker of the evening will be Carl Shafer, new director of the Family Service organization in Pasadena. After his talk, there will be a question-and-answer period.

Mrs. Osborn, Nominating Committee chairman, will present the slate of three new officers: Thomas M. Schwartz, to succeed himself; Douglas Lance and Mrs. E. W. Carver to succeed Charles Skutt and Rev. Donald Ostrander. Nominations from the floor will be in order.

At the present rate of participation in the local Family Service group there is enough money in the Treasury to last through the month of May. As a result, the unit is making an appeal to interested citizens who have not already become members of Family Service to do so as soon as possible. Donations may be sent to Mr. John L. Fitzgerald, treasurer. A membership card will be mailed immediately in acknowledgment.

Local Entries Made In 'Soap Box Derby'

There have been 11 "potential" entries, locally, in the "Soap Box Derby," according to Derby publicist Sterling Ripple, acting for the Lions Club sponsoring the event in this area.

His information states: "Boys not already lined up with a sponsor will be assisted by Lions Club committee procuring same. Entries are being turned in at Dickson's Market, where additional entry blanks also are available."

He adds that "boys interested and wanting more information can leave names at Dickson's Market or at the S. M. News."

Your community is alive with projects toward betterment. It needs you!

Girl Scouts Assist County X-Ray Service

Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. John Hildner are distributing material announcing the County Health Department's Spring chest X-Ray program which begins in Sierra Madre Monday, according to Dr. Chester C. Burski, district health officer.

In addition to telling when the mobile chest X-Ray unit will be in the area, the notices state: "The X-Ray is a picture of your chest at no charge to you; you do not have to undress; it only takes a minute and does not hurt."

"You will be notified of any chest condition requiring medical care, and reports in this tax-supported service are confidential."

Dr. Burski said that medical authorities feel that every adult should have an annual chest X-Ray. Lung cancer and certain heart abnormalities, in addition to tuberculosis, are often detected by this means, he pointed out.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Betty Conzelman, president of the local Coordinating Council, hostesses to assist in registration and information will be furnished by the following groups: Sierra Madre Women's Club, Sierra Madre Civic Club, Girl Scout Council and Camp Fire Girls Council.

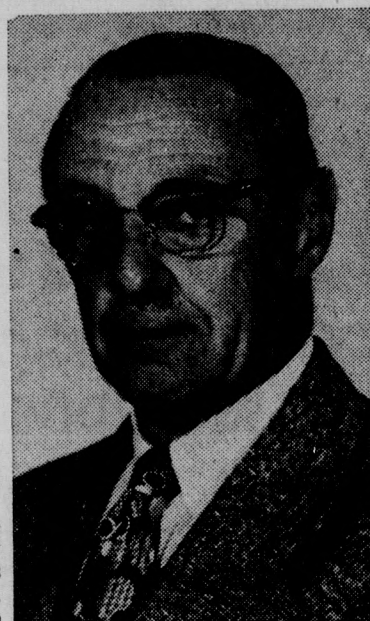

The big gray truck will be parked in the Triangle at Kersting court, 9 a.m. to 3:30, April 27, and 1 to 7 p.m. April 28.

Dr. Maxstadt Receives New Post July 1

Dr. Francis W. Maxstadt, 600 Ramona, associate professor of electrical engineering at the California Institute of Technology, has been appointed registrar of the Institute by action of the board of trustees, Caltech President L. A. DuBridge has announced.

The appointment is effective July 1. Professor Maxstadt will assume duties previously handled by L. Winchester Jones, who has acted as both registrar and dean of admissions.

Work of the admissions office has gradually increased due to establishment of a number of new undergraduate scholarships and to the increasing attention devoted to improved selection of freshmen students, and Professor Jones will continue to serve as dean of admissions.

Professor Maxstadt has been a member of the Institute staff since 1919. He graduated from Cornell University in 1916, and later received the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Caltech.

REMEMBER THE CEMETERY!

City Administrator R. Merritt Baker is asking the citizens of Sierra Madre to remember the needs of the local cemetery, especially at this time of year when Decoration Day ceremonies are forthcoming. There have been certain times in years past when city officials and relatives of those buried in the graves have stood knee-high in weeds during Decoration Day observances at the cemetery. Will it happen again this year?

What Is The New School Bond Issue All About . . . ?

One of the most important school issues in the history of Sierra Madre will be presented for voters' consideration May 5, the date set for the $242,000 school bond election.

Because the News believes the public should hear what the City School Board of Trustees has to say on the matter, it is offering a series of articles, released by the Board of Trustees, to be printed each week between now and election time.

This is the third part in the series.

Questions and Answers

1. What has caused delay in developing the lots on Auburn avenue into a play area?

The funds for this development were from the increased tax rate for the year 1951. This money has just become available during 1952 and will be spent to develop this as a playground during the summer of 1953.

Reference Textbook

The Handbook is used for reference purposes and as a textbook for classroom instruction. Reviews of the Handbook and articles about the Nursery final consideration because:

(a) It is located on a major boulevard.

(b) It is too removed from central location in the school district since it is in the extreme southeast of the district.

(c) It is not readily accessible to the canyon area which has approximately one-third of the population.

3. Why are the seventh and eighth graders not being considered in this planning?

It is the responsibility of the Pasadena City School District to furnish housing for the Sierra Madre seventh and eighth graders. They are doing this at a cost to us of our average cost which is a very reasonable figure.

4. Why won't some of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades be located in the new building?

For several reasons it would be beneficial to have the upper grade students at the main building, namely:

(a) The upper grade students are the ones who belong to the Student Council, Safety Committee, etc., and thus have more use for auditorium facilities for assemblies.

April Marks Fourth Edition Date for Nursery Handbook

BIG ATTENTION TO A LITTLE BOOK is being given by parents in Sierra Madre this week, because the modest publication, having gained world-wide attention, moves into its fourth printing this month. Its full title is: "A Nursery School Handbook for Teachers and Parents." More simply referred to as the "Nursery Handbook," it began with 200 copies, laboriously mimeographed and assembled by hand, then grew in publication to 400 copies, some of which are now being used in foreign countries. Those in the picture, from left to right, are its author, Mrs. Marjorie Green, director of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, Mrs. John C. Loomis, chairman of the Handbook Committee, Enrique Alonso, treasurer of the Association, and Mrs. Gerald Marugg, president.

Teachers and students in the United States and those in foreign countries may be many miles apart, but they have one thing in common—"A Nursery School Handbook for Teachers and Parents," published by the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association. With no publicizing except through word-of-mouth advertising, the Handbook has attracted so much attention that, after selling 4000 copies, it moves into its fourth printing this month.

Written by Mrs. Marjorie Green, Director of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, and Dr. Elizabeth Woods, formerly Supervisor of Guidance and Counseling, Los Angeles City Schools, the first edition of the Handbook was published in 1948 as a guide to teachers and parents interested in providing a good child guidance program for their preschoolers.

First Edition

The first edition amounted to 200 copies. Laboriously mimeographed and assembled by hand in the City Hall under the direction of Mrs. Charles Skutt, it now has taken the name of Sierra Madre and its Community Nursery School into many sections of the United States and throughout the world. Among the many orders have been those from Sweden, England, British Guiana, Alaska; from Father Flanagan's Boys' Home, Drexel Institute of Technology, Pa., Michigan State College, Baptists' Bookstore, New Orleans, La., Children's Bureau, Dept. of Labor, Washington, D.C.; from the Los Angeles Public Library, Dept. of Education Library, Winnipeg, Canada, the Salvation Army Day Nursery, Los Angeles.

Social and Club Activities

Angelus Party Nets Funds for Parish

The Angelus Guild of the Church of the Ascension were hosts Saturday night at a spring party and benefit dance in the Tournament Room of the Pasadena Athletic Club.

Mrs. Kay Peterson, chairman, has announced that proceeds of the affair will be used to complete the parish hall decorating.

San Gabriel Post Of Legion Presents Show April 24, 25

American Legionnaires and the Auxiliary in Sierra Madre have been especially invited to attend the annual benefit show to be presented tomorrow and Saturday nights in the San Gabriel Mission Playhouse by that city's American Legion Post No. 442.

In addition to local talent, this year's Gay Nineties Revue will feature a number of guest artists, among them Jeanine Thomas, 15-year-old coloratura soprano who has appeared on personal concert tours with the Philharmonic in Los Angeles.

Another attraction will be the appearance of Fannie Mae Lockwood, well known to Sierra Madreans. She is a Pasadena character actress with many years of experience, and will appear in the number, "The Gay Nineties Tea Party" as the "hostess with the mostest on the ball." Miss Lockwood has presented dramatic readings at the Woman's Club and appeared here in a benefit musical some years ago. She will be wearing an elaborate gown of the nineties which she fashioned herself from a fashion picture of that period.

Other luminaries will be Homer Garrett's Y-Knot Twirlers of television popularity.

In addition to these will be other performers who for years have added to the success of the Legion show. Proceeds will benefit needy veterans and their families.

Curtain time for both nights of the show is 8:30 o'clock.

MRS. WEBB IN EAST

Mrs. Carrie G. Webb, 341½ Auburn, left Monday for a 10-week trip East. She plans to stop in Coffeyville, Kans., where she taught for 29 years in the Senior High School, and will visit many friends there before going to Mt. Pleasant, Ia., for a visit with her sister, Esther Webb, a teacher at Iowa Wesleyan College.

THE MASTER PLAN OF THE PROPOSED NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL shows the units that would be put into immediate construction, and those that would be built later in keeping with the growth of Sierra Madre's student population. First accommodations would provide for eight classrooms and a kindergarten, as shown above in the striped sections. The smaller striped portion, to the right of the play yard, is the Administration Building. The large building, at lower left in lighter marking, will be the multi-purpose structure that can be used for cafeteria, auditorium, and recreational purposes. Until the entire plan is completed to include this, students would be served meals delivered from the cafeteria of the present City School. The driveway area at the bottom of the drawing indicates an off-street parking zone and bus stop.

With her when she died were Mrs. LuVisi and another daughter and a son, Mrs. Nat Giannoni and Rev. Joseph Curielli, both of Chicago.

Another son who survives, Mr. Peter Curielli, a Chicago attorney, had been here earlier during his mother's illness but had returned to Chicago. It was the first time since 1936 that the entire family had been together.

Mrs. Curielli came to Sierra Madre in February for her annual winter visit here. She suffered another heart attack which proved fatal.

Mrs. LuVisi, Mrs. Giannoni and Father Curielli left together Monday night to accompany the body to Chicago where funeral services will be held Saturday from St. John's Bosco church. Father Curielli is priest in another Chicago parish, St. Genevieve's.

CHRISTIANS TODAY LACK TRUE PRAYER GUEST PASTOR SAYS

Capacity audiences at Bethany Church heard Dr. Robert Schaper, evangelist associated with Jack Shuler, in both the morning and evening services last Sunday.

Dr. Schaper's morning sermon was entitled, "What in the World Is the Matter?" Pointing to the text in the ninth chapter of Mark, Dr. Schaper compared the failure of the disciples in Christ's day to what he termed the "powerlessness" of Christians today. The fault is lack of true prayer throughout Christendom, he said.

Dr. Schaper singled out the specialization of the Christian ministry as one of the main causes for the lack of prayer power. "In times of adversity or perplexity you want a person who can pray. Are you that type of person?" he asked.

Dr. Schaper ended his message with an invitation to a life of prayer.

In the evening the title of the message was "The Four Hundred," and the text was I Samuel 22:2. Dr. Schaper compared the rejected David to the rejected Christ, and the four hundred who came to David in distress, debt and discontent, to those who come to Christ today through adversity. Dr. Schaper stated that distress often leads to eternal gain and that the stimulus of discontent can be beneficial as it has been in the progress of industrial America. In pointing to a third adversity, that of debt, Dr. Schaper said, "We owe God every heart-beat."

Dr. George Ladd, interim preacher, will be in the pulpit again Sunday, April 26.

News of the Churches

Lutherans To Hear Guest Speaker Sun.

Rev. A. G. Webbeking of Montebello will conduct services next Sunday, April 26, for the congregation of Faith Lutheran Church, meeting temporarily in the Woman's Clubhouse.

Rev. Webbeking is the Mission Counselor for the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

Prior to his call to that position, according to the local church's pastor, Rev. A. Hesse, Mr. Webbeking held the pastorate of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Orange.

Sierra Madre's Faith Lutheran Church is constructing a new edifice at Hastings Ranch Drive and Sierra Madre boulevard. The building will be dedicated in June.

ASCENSION DAY STUDENT WINS ESSAY AWARD

Second prize in a national essay contest conducted by the Living Church Magazine of the Episcopal Church, was won by Rosalie Courtright, daughter of Mrs. Frances Courtright of Pasadena and a student in the 8th grade of the Ascension Parish Day School in Sierra Madre.

The subject of the essay contest was: "If I Had a Million Dollars to Give to the Church."

Rosalie's prize of a silver medal and a check for $50 was awarded in recognition of her suggestion that the money be spent on more radio and television programs devoted to religious subjects.

The contest, which is conducted annually, was open to students in elementary and secondary schools of the Episcopal Church throughout the United States. Other winners in Sierra Madre were:

A bronze medal and honorable mention to Kathleen Sauter, who wrote on the work among the Navajo Indians; honorable mention to Susan Davis, who wrote on the need for work among the Japanese-American orphans; and the same award to Phillip Woodward, who urged that the money be spent for establishing additional parochial schools.

Lesson-Sermon Studies 'Probation After Death'

That life and progressive experience continue after death is the leading point in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon "Probation after Death" in all Christian Science churches.

Luke's Gospel (24:30, 31, 33, 35, 36) records that Jesus walked to Emmaus with two of his disciples after his resurrection, and "as he sat at meat with them, . . . their eyes were opened, and they knew him; . . . And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together. . . . And they told what things were done in the way. . . . And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave. Jesus was 'the way'; that is, he marked the way for all men" (p. 46).

Composer of 'Old Rugged Cross' Recent Guest Here

The 84-year-old man who wrote one of the most famous hymns, "The Old Rugged Cross" and who appeared on the 1953 Rose Parade float which featured that theme, was a guest in Sierra Madre recently before returning to his home in Reed City, Mich.

He is Mr. George Bernard and he and Mrs. Bernard visited briefly with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Scoville, 272 West Grand View in California since the first of the year, the Bernards were much in demand on the coast. Mr. Bernard has written many other songs and is a popular speaker.

Their hosts, the Scovilles, are parents of the musical Scoville sisters, Marleen and Marjorie, who soon will make their 2400th public appearance with their marimba, vibraphone and piano numbers.

UNDERSTANDING EACH OTHER

"To fulfill the hopes of democracy in our American adventure we must attempt to understand one another better, must try to avoid all unnecessary clash of personalities, and develop calmly, before situations arise, suitable techniques for the handling of our differences. No opinion at variance with ours should ever be permitted to threaten our basic human relationship with anyone."—Dr. J. Richard Sneed, First Methodist Church, Los Angeles.

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL tablecloths to be seen in Sierra Madre for many years is the one shown in the picture along with its creator, Madam Berth Babin, second from the left. A masterpiece in crochet, it will be displayed at the Pomona Fair in September. In the immediate present, it is being used to help raise funds for the securing of material for the Sewing Group of the Sierra Madre Friendship Club, members of which are making clothes for orphans. Of those who contribute to the cause, someone eventually will receive the tablecloth as an award. The women shown, who are working towards this goal, are, from left to right: Mrs. Blanche Gallegos, Madam Babin, Mrs. Etta Leguin, Mrs. Nellie McGuire, and Mrs. Alice Sedgman.

Mrs. Lacy's Tour Abroad Will Include England's Coronation

Mrs. Clara Bruce Lacy's friends in Sierra Madre are looking forward to first hand accounts of the Coronation in England in June and at a send-off luncheon for her recently they extracted promises of descriptive letters.

Mrs. Lacy, who resides at 84 W. Laurel, left Friday for Kansas City where she will visit briefly and will be joined by her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. Lee Smiser, who will be her traveling companion for the European tour which will culminate in England.

The two women will visit also in Philadelphia before going on to New York City where they will embark April 25 aboard the Holland-American liner the S. S. Ryndam.

The tour will take them to Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, France and England. They will arrive in London the day before the Coronation but are not apprehensive about having a vantage point. Their places are already reserved for them in a covered grandstand where their meals will be served to them on Coronation day.

Mrs. Lacy expects to return to Sierra Madre late in June.

Mrs. Shelby Cowart and Mrs. F. D. R. Moote were hostesses at a bon voyage luncheon for Mrs. Lacy before her departure.

IMMUNIZING AMERICA

"Striking differences of personal preference, far from being antagonistic, can, with a constructive attitude upon our part, become stimulating, expansive, and creative. We can discover new vistas of truth and wider ranges of understanding whenever we bring our own prejudices into the light. We help to immunize America against intolerance, bigotry, and confusion every time we personally practice the fine art of disagreeing agreeably."—Dr. J. ## Social and Club Activities

'Goats for Korea' Current Project of OES Social Club

Men and women attending a dinner which the Social Club of the Order of Eastern Star will sponsor the night of April 27 are expected to enjoy their fare in extra measure, knowing that the admission they pay eventually will help provide goat's milk for hungry little children in Korea, innocent victims of the fighting there.

Actually, the money raised at this and similar affairs will buy goats to be sent to Korea. The project is an organized one with headquarters in Pasadena. The director of the project, David E. Norcross, will be the speaker at the dinner here on the 27th. The dinner is open to the general public.

Eastern Star members heard Mr. Norcross speak recently at the Congregational Church and were so impressed with his comments and the worthiness of the project that they decided to follow up with the approaching fund-raising dinner.

The dinner is scheduled for 6:45 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 33 E. Sierra Madre boulevard. Mrs. William Bowers, as president of the sponsoring Social Club, heads the dinner committee which also includes Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. James Moore.

The organization which Mr. Norcross heads gives assistance to children of other countries as well as Korea, but the coming dinner funds are to be used specifically for "Goats for Korea."

HIGH MASS, DINNER, RECEPTION MARK PAULUS GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Paulus, 75 East Mira Monte, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 12, at a high mass followed by a dinner and reception, the occasion also marked the 28th wedding anniversary of one son, the third wedding anniversary of a grandson and the 14th birthday of another grandson. The celebration was one day in advance of the actual anniversaries and birthday, April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulus' oldest son, Ambrose, and his wife, Mary, of Montebello, were married 28 years ago on his parents' anniversary and, in turn, their son, Raymond, married his wife, Verna, on the same date three years ago. They now reside in Hollywood.

In the midst of all the anniversary festivities Richard Paulus, son of the senior Pauluses' other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Paulus, 177 West Grand View, received good wishes on his 14th birthday.

The senior Mr. and Mrs. Paulus also have a daughter, the former Irene Paulus, now Mrs. Thomas Nestor, who makes her home in Sierra Madre with her husband and children.

Mr. Urban and Mr. Ambrose

Social and Club Activities

MARTINET REUNION CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY, SOLDIER'S HOMECOMING

Approximately 50 members of the Martinet family gathered Sunday, April 12, on the grounds of the R. T. Martinet home, 217 South Lima, for the annual family reunion.

The occasion this year also celebrated the 55th wedding anniversary of the parents, the Edward Martinets of Los Angeles and was a "welcome home" to Ronald L. Martinet, 417 Manzanita, who was home on furlough after 18 months with the air force in Japan and Korea. He reported to March Field this week for reassignment.

Present were the Edward Martinets' 12 sons and daughters, most all living in the Southland. The group included 25 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Present from the most distant point were Mr. and Mrs. Eloy Martinet of Las Vegas, Nev. Two of the great-grandchildren, Gary and Keith, small sons of the R. T. Martinets of Sierra Madre.

A pot-luck meal was served during the day and entertainment included ping pong games and stunts on the trampoline, among other activities.

The reunion customarily is held on Easter Sunday but was deferred one week to coincide with the elderly couple's anniversary date.

Local Writers Attend Reception For Teacher In Altadena Sunday

A number of Sierra Madreans attended the reception Sunday afternoon, April 19, at the Altadena Town and Country Club for Mrs. Ivan Jones, author and teacher whose professional name is Helen Hinckley. Some of them, including Mrs. Alice Pedigo and Mrs. Grace Vane, have attended Mrs. Jones' writing classes.

Another ex-pupil, Mrs. Lincoln Pittinger, is spending a year with her husband and children near Athens, Greece, from where she has written a series of articles for the News.

Mrs. Jones is the author of "The Mountains Are Mine," besides many children's stories, and other stories in various periodicals. Her husband also is a writer and instructor at Pasadena City College.

The campaign against cancer may help YOU!

Former Resident Writes Flatteringly Of Sierra Madre

Additional proof that "once a Sierra Madrean, always a Sierra Madrean" was given the NEWS recently in a few words written by Mrs. John H. Robertson of Portuguese Bend, former Sierra Madre resident and club-woman.

"Will always love Sierra Madre and hope to be back there some day," she writes. The card on which she expressed these sentiments was one of the souvenir cards sold years ago at a Wistaria Fete. Mrs. Robertson served two and a half terms as president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, in 1928 to 1930 and again in 1939-1940.

She was among past presidents present as honored guests at the Woman's Club 46th birthday celebration earlier this spring.

Mrs. Robertson has subscribed to the NEWS continuously for the past 30 years and reads it from "cover to cover," she reports.

Her son, J. Craig McLaughlin, also remembered here, moved some months ago to a new home in China Lake, she writes.

WHO SAYS WHAT . . . ?

Don't forget to set your clocks ahead Saturday night for Daylight Savings Time which becomes official Sunday at 1 a.m. Or, if you want to be obstinate about it, you can always wait until Sunday to argue with your friends as to whether you lose an hour by setting the clock ahead. Some of them, no doubt, will insist that the only way to gain an hour is by setting the clock back 60 minutes. But what you really are doing is gaining an hour of daylight by losing an hour in setting the clock ahead—in order to gain that extra hour later which you lose in order to . . . Never mind. ## Local Entries Compete In Pigeon Race

Trained birds from Sierra Madre were in the competition last Sunday when approximately 3000 racing pigeons were released simultaneously over the San Joaquin Valley at 7 a.m. in the 200-mile race from Fresno to Los Angeles County. The plucky little birds battled headwinds for five to six hours to reach their home lofts.

Owners of local entries in the race included Hugo Annas, William Stanley, Mike Aranson, and Marcus Woodward Jr., all members of the Crown City Racing Pigeon Club. William Stanley's birds came in ninth and eleventh in the club, winning over the other local entries.

Twenty years ago Sierra Madre was known among pigeon racers for its many large lofts and winning birds. History appears to be repeating itself as interest in the sport increases. In the race from Tulare on April 12, Hugo Annas won not only first place in the Crown City Club, but received the trophy for the Mountain Concourse, which comprises six clubs, and totaled 626 birds in the day's competition. William Stanley was sixth in the club, and 14th in the concourse, while Marcus Woodward Jr. raced the winning bird in the junior division.

SUCCESSING WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

"Reducing the friction of living depends upon the practice of our own good relationships with persons closely associated with us. The test of our efficiency comes in our relations with those persons nearby with whom we rub shoulders day by day. If we fail with our next door neighbors, how can we expect to succeed elsewhere?"—Dr. J. Richard Sneed, First Methodist Church, Los Angeles.

IT ISN'T A FAMILY PORTRAIT, but a group picture of the new "Royal Fountain Grill" manager with his staff that is now greeting and serving the customers who crowd daily into Sierra Madre's newest establishment for short-order meals. Besides the fine food that is cooked on a modern grill for all the world to see, the establishment offers the largest "news" rack in town—in keeping with the spirit of the old "Sierra News Stand" that kept local residents supplied with a great variety of tobacco, magazines, and newspapers. From left to right, they are Margie Yeager, Bonnie Mattioda, Manager Morrie Yasskin, Elsie Davis, and Hazel Hansen.

A Letter From Athens to the Folks at Home

Virginia Pittinger, wife of Lincoln Pittinger, now on an engineering job in Athens, Greece, writes to The News about the experiences she is sharing with her husband and three children during a year's absence from their home in Sierra Madre.

Villa Antigone Iatrou
Ekali, Greece

Perhaps some of you read the article in the Jan. 3 issue of SatEvePost about Greece and Papagos. In that article, which by the way, gives a reasonably accurate picture of the problems that exist here, Mr. Hauser mentions "U.S. Ambassador John E. Peurifoy, a cheerily impetuous man. . . . I think Mr. P's cheery impetuosity carried him a little too far when he said in a speech before a group of American women that Greek wages have kept pace with inflation."

Nothing appears farther from the truth. Greek economy at this point resembles nothing so much as a flat tire—inflated everywhere but at the bottom where most Greeks work and try to eke out a living. The cheapest commodity on the Greek market is labor—and what an affront it is to the dignity of man when the skill of mind and hand is of less value than the materials they mold.

An Ailing Economy

This is a sick economy—stagnant and poor. You cannot talk to a Greek for five minutes without his telling you what a poor country Greece is. And it is poor, but it seems to us that it is poorer than need be. For example, Greek wine is shipped to France, decorated with French labels and thus earns American dollars for the treasury of France. Greek olive oil goes to Italy, finds itself labeled Italian and fills the coffers there. Why? Because in Greece there is little enterprise, imagination, initiative or drive. Do not misunderstand me. I like the Greeks as a people—some of them I love. They are simple, warm-hearted, gallant and brave. But they are still living in the shadow of a glory over 2000 years old. And the modern world doesn't do much to help.

When tourists come to Greece what do they want to see—what do they want to talk about—what do they write about? The antiquities! And what do they say in utter disappointment and disdain? "Why, these Greeks are not the Hellenes of 2000 years ago. They are a different race—Slavic, Turkish, Germanic, Egyptian." All right. They're not the same. But what of it! At the risk of being considered a dolt or a barbarian or worse, I confess that I am far more interested in the life and warmth and wishful courage that are, than in all the wondrous glory that was!

Need World Role

The Greeks as a nation need to feel that they have a real place in today's world—and a contribution to make to it. They've been at the raggle-taggle end of things for so long that they think it's the only place for them. For generations of turbulent political history they've held off aggressions of one kind or another and fought themselves free again when they've been defeated. They've come to regard as normal their routine of a little frugal peace followed by a great deal of violent war.

And there you have it—when did a national sense of inferiority, hopelessness and indifference ever breed enterprise, imagination, initiative or drive? If only we could help them see, through our eyes, the things they might export to a world that really knows very little about them, their wonderful talent for music, their colorful costumes and native dances, their art, the physical beauty of their country.

Poverty Is of Spirit

Perhaps you have begun to see—as they have not—that the physical poverty of Greece is, in part, the result of poverty of mind and spirit. And this poverty no government aid on earth can dispel however good its intentions. The people are hoping, however, that the Papagos government will at least try to take steps to strengthen the shaky economy and combat the poverty of mind and spirit. One such step would be to close the terrible gap between wages and prices. I did my ineffective bit along that line the day before New Year's, the Greek day for gift giving.

I had gone in to Athens to the big central food market (not recommended for those with susceptible stomachs) and found the huge square at the entrance to the market lined on all sides with stalls and jammed full of people. The stalls were well stocked with merchandise—some shoddy, some fine—but all expensive. The people milled about in real holiday exuberance, shouting at each other, laughing heartily over little things, jostling, pushing, clowning. They laughed at the antics of the mechanical monkeys, gaped at the German trains, exclaimed over the dolls and fingered the rubber balls. But in the end they bought balloons for 3000 Dr. each (about 20c).

Car Is Admired

I had parked the car in front of a stall run by a man who had once worked for the American Mission here and who knew a little English. He admired the car at great length, asked me why it was so dirty and while I explained about Ekali mud, began to wipe it clean with a rag. Finally he got round to asking me if I wanted to buy anything. I examined his merchandise—tiny mechanical cars—small rubber balls—and balloons—listened to his prices—$7, $2, 20c—and bought a ball and three balloons. He shook his head sadly. Business was very bad. All these people and no money. I pointed out that they had money, but not enough to meet his prices. Then I suggested that he reduce his prices—perhaps cut them in half. He looked at me as though I were crazy and I hastened to explain. Five sold at half price would earn more than one at full price—or more than none sold at all. He smiled ed then as he understood. Ah, yes, this was an America idea! But it was not for Greece. No, things were different here—harder, much harder.

Maybe if I'd had more Greek I could have persuaded him to try. As it was he told me that all the merchandise I saw would be put away for next year. And that's what happens to half the merchandise in Athens. It's kept on the shelves until time and dust make it what it may not have been in the first place—an inferior product that will satisfy nobody.

Seek Foreign Capital

Papagos is talking about encouraging foreign capital. I'd like to see a Sears Roebuck or a Montgomery Ward—with their genius for low cost production, large scale merchandising and quick turnover—come in here and set up shop. The competition would surely spark a tingle in this stagnant economy that would be felt everywhere—and then things would start to move—money, stock, labor and manufacturing. Greece would be a live, going concern and the people would have a share in it.

Somehow something will have to be done. The poverty and misery of a whole people do not remain static. I am told, though I have seen no indications of it, that the Communists are gathered in their holes, ready and waiting.

SAM PERLOFF

P.S.—Since writing the foregoing I've had an opportunity to talk to someone from the U.S. Embassy about this business of wages and prices. I was solemnly assured that statistics did indeed prove that the gap between the two was narrowing. Of course, 75% of the average income went for housing and food, leaving next to nothing for clothing, medical care or recreation.

GRAND OPENING STARTS TODAY THRU SAT.

NOBODY COULD TELL by looking at this picture that it's an interior view of what once was the old "Sierra News Stand." Since Sam Perloff took over the place Jan. 2, joining it by an inside entrance to his Royal Drug, the rebuilt establishment has caused many a passer-by to stop for a "double-take." The paneling is clearheart redwood, and the fixtures are the best that can be made in stainless steel. Everything in it is so new, in fact, that not even an old dish is left from the former "Stand." Perloff is so proud of it that he is declaring a "Grand Opening," which he will celebrate today, tomorrow, and Saturday by giving orchids to the ladies and other tokens of good will to everyone.

Royal Fountain Grill Brings All-New Look to Old Location

The name of it is "The Royal Fountain Grill." Everything about it is new, except its address—15 Kersting court—and the old sign that still remains above the door: "Sierra News Stand."

The old-timers in Sierra Madre will probably continue to call it by the old name for some time to come, human nature being what it is, but they will find nothing inside to remind them of the days when they ducked in only for a newspaper, a quick purchase at the tobacco counter—or just to get out of the rain.

They may still go in for the same errands, without being disappointed; the new magazine rack is 21 feet long and if there's a publication it doesn't offer, store owner Sam Perloff doesn't know what it is. But these are no longer the sole attractions. What catches the eye are the 14-foot light-buff walls that seem to bring the sunlight in—for the first time; the huge vent-over, stainless steel hood that removes all smoke and cooking odors from the new grill where food is prepared in the customer's presence by Margie Yeager, chief cook, and sometimes by Morrie Yasskin, manager of the new restaurant.

There's not a trace of the old counter. The new one, seating 21 people at gleaming Formica surface-tops, doesn't even touch the floor around the base. That's because all the new equipment has been built to conform with the very latest standards set by State Health and Sanitary Codes. This also applies to the all-new plumbing and dish washing mechanisms. Even the dishes are new.

Perhaps one of the most impressive effects within the newly illuminated interior is that achieved by the far wall where the entire section is made of clearheart redwood paneling. The rich, soothing effect of this paneling continues around the counter beyond which there is further use of redwood halfway up the high walls to where the buff colored paint catches more light. This, in combination with modern fluorescent lights, means that the old dark of the old stand is gone forever.

The man who brought about these changes is Sam Perloff, the pharmacist next door who

He is survived by his wife, Stefa; two stepsons, Michael Cuning of Oakland and Robin Cuning at the Navy Air Base, Mira Mar; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kroemer of Fort Wayne; two sisters, Mrs. Jack Blake, Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Glen Moehler, Auburn, Ind.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. today at Grant Chapel. Final rites and interment will be in Fort Wayne.

Application By Edison Co. Asks Increase

The Southern California Edison Company has filed an application with the Public Utilities Commission of California, asking for a rate increase which will provide an approximate six per cent rate of return on its rate base, which it is believed "will protect the public interest in the future by protecting the strength of the company."

Formal public hearings before the California Public Utilities Commission are scheduled for June 10.

At the Edison Company's annual meeting of stockholders last Friday, April 17, W. C. Mullendore, president, stated that the year 1952 was a relatively good year compared with preceding years and insofar as earnings per common share were concerned. The company had the best water supply in Edison history, both on the San Joaquin River watershed, supplying the company's Big Creek plants, and on the Colorado River, supplying the Hoover Dam plants.

With these favorable circumstances, Mr. Mullendore pointed out that the company's financial performance for the year would have been better if its rates for electric service had been adjusted for inflation, as have the rates of most other utilities.

Mayor's Proclamation . . .

Since the public schools of the United States are the foundations of our free democracy and play a major role in the preparation of the citizen for tomorrow, the effectiveness of our schools depends upon the wholehearted endorsement and support by the citizens of each community.

As the week of April 26 to May 1, 1953, has been selected as "Public Schools Week" in California, I, Henry F. Korsmeier, Mayor of the City of Sierra Madre, designate the week of April 26 to May 1, 1953, as "Public Schools Week" in Sierra Madre, and urge every resident of Sierra Madre to visit his public schools to be better apprised of their role in the development of our children to meet the important obligations in a democratic society. Such a visit will enable each citizen to gain a greater appreciation of the loyalties and responsibilities of the schools.

HENRY F. KORSMEIER, Mayor

Wilson Holds 'Open House'

Wilson Junior High School will hold its "Annual Open House" the evening of April 30, beginning at 7:30. At that time all adults interested in present-day educational practices in the school are invited to see actual class room instruction.

So that each class may be long enough to afford some practical demonstration only three classes are to be "taught" that evening. This year, the periods chosen are 1, 3, and 5. In order that all parents may come, special care will be provided for children younger than Wilson students. Children from ages 5 to 11 will be entertained by movies in the Visual Education Room while those children younger than five will be given special care in Room 222.

Refreshments provided by the Lamanda Park Branch of the Masonic Lodge will be served after "school" is dismissed for the evening.

Help the American Red Cross that helps so many!

YOUR PATTERN FOR SURVIVAL

In case of atomic attack or any other major disaster

REMEMBER THESE WARNING SIGNALS 3-MINUTE UP AND DOWN SIREN THE ALERT SIGNAL is one continuous 3-minute wailing siren. It means "expect attack at any moment". 1 MIN. 2 MIN. 1 MIN. 2 MIN. 1 MIN. THE ALL-CLEAR SIGNAL is three 3-minute blasts with 2-minutes of silence between. You should do the following NOW:		1. First Aid: Every home should have a person trained in first aid. Ask the Red Cross.	2. Home Nursing: At least one member of the family should be trained in this work. Ask the Red Cross.
3. Fire Prevention: Clean out rubbish from yards, attics, porches, and cellars.	4. Fire Control: Have extinguishers and sand pails handy.	5. Shelters: Determine now the safest place in your home, away from outside doorways and windows.	6. Meeting Place: Fix a place for assembly or reunion with your family in event of separation because of disaster.
7. Biological (Germ) Warfare: Keep home and surroundings sanitary. Report sickness promptly to family physician.	8. "Six Secrets of Survival": Read the official United States booklet on this subject: "Survival Under Atomic Attack".	9. Food Supply: Homes should have a sufficient supply of canned and fresh food to last several days. Hoarding should be discouraged.	10. Water: Keep a container in refrigerator. Learn how you can drain additional water from your water heater.
11. First Aid Kit: Each home should have first aid items on hand for use in normal times, as well as for disaster use.	12. Utilities: Shut off gas, electricity and water at the appliance switch, just as if you were going away for the weekend.	13. Do not use the telephone: Communication lines will be needed for official rescue and relief.	14. Keep the radio turned on: You will need it for official information.

What you must do when attack warning system sounds, or when attack or disaster occurs without warning:

IN SIERRA MADRE THE RED ALERT SIGNAL is 3-minute, intermittent short blasts on the fire horn. All clear signal same as above.

FIRE FLAMES

Spring is here, the birds are singing merrily, and love is in the air. Even an old buck gets iron in his blood and feels a little giddy. But not too giddy to forget the need of spring clean-up as a means of fire prevention. (You knew I'd ring that in, didn't you?)

Fire is one of the worst dangers facing children today. If you pay much attention to that sort of news, you will read every now and then where children were caught in a fire and burned to death or maimed for life. If we are to save more lives in this respect, we have to be more careful.

Spring clean-up can do much toward saving many lives. Alertness to the actions of children will help keep them away from matches. If by accident they should get hold of some, there is a certainty that where there is not too much to burn, there will not be too much fire.

If you will check the basement, or under the house, you might find newspapers, rags, or discarded furniture. This may sound like nonsense to those who have not experienced the result of the hot fire produced by such materials. And again, the furnace may not be in perfect conditions, so this should be inspected by an expert on furnaces. If you have a work bench in the basement (or elsewhere) make sure that there are no shavings around and that paints, varnishes and oils are correctly stored.

Boy Scout News

Those who went on the recent Palo Verde trip for Explorers of Post 31 were Charles Ascher and son, Charlie, Steve Metzger, Dick Eddy, Ted Robertson, and Bob Nelson. The four-day outing in the vicinity of Blythe included a visit to Parker Dam and a camp-out on the Arizona side of Lake Havasu.

Dick Eddy was the only fisherman, but there were no fish caught. Most popular sports were swimming and boating.

When Cub Scout Pack 1 met at the City School auditorium Friday evening, April 17, it was the consensus of opinion that an outstandingly good program had been presented. Webelos Badges, one of the highest honors a Cub Scout can earn, were presented to Francis Trowbridge and Byron Lindquist who were then welcomed into Scout Troop 5 by Leader Bill Spargur of Bethany Church.

Six new boys were accepted by Akela's Council and initiated into Cubbing. They were Gary Forster, John McRoberts, David Hopper, James Leonard, John Rutledge and Stephen Benson. Transfer of Arthur Bohart from the State of Illinois was also official.

Cubs of Den 1 led by Den Mother Irene Vis presented an amusing series of songs in pantomime in which some of our best boys looked like charming little girls or typical barber-shop quartette members. Following this, a number of surprised fathers participated in an impromptu hula dance which brought great merriment and applause. After the meeting, parents and guests had an opportunity to view an impressive display of handicraft done by Cubs of various Dens.

The following Cubs received achievement awards:

Den 1—Gary Glaser, 1 silver arrow, Wolf rank; Richard Vis, 1 gold arrow, Bear rank; Dwight Freund, 1 gold arrow,

1 silver arrow, Wolf rank.
Den 2—Wm. Beiffus, 1 gold arrow, Bear rank; Cameron Graham, 1 silver arrow, Wolf rank.

Den 6—Harrison Bains, 1 silver arrow, Wolf rank; Daniel Davis, 1 gold arrow, 1 silver arrow, Wolf rank; James Kelleher, 1 Wolf badge; Sumner Nash, 1 Bear badge; Frances Trowbridge, Webelos badge; Stuart White, 1 Bear badge; 1 gold arrow, Bear rank; Jon Stanley, 1 silver arrow, Bear rank; Wm. Stanley, 1 silver arrow, Bear rank, 1 Lion rank, 1 gold arrow, Lion rank, 1 silver arrow, Lion rank.

Den 7—Neil Christensen, 1 silver arrow, Wolf rank, and Byron Lindquist, Webelos badge.

Members of Den 6, accompanied by the parents of some, hiked to the falls in Monrovia Canyon Saturday morning. The group included Jon and Bill Stanley, Denny Davis, Richard Sewall, Stewart White, Jimmy Kelleher, Mac Bains, Dale Trowbridge, Sumner Nash, Peter and Chris Stanley.

The parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nash.

AMERICA'S NEW RAILROAD

"I want a ticket on the Atomic Super Chief!"

Well, sonny, just hang on to that dream. By the time you're a full fare, it might come true!

Of course there is no "Atomic Super Chief" . . . yet.

But, don't sell American ingenuity and progress short. At the rate things grow new for you on the Santa Fe, you only need to squint your mind's eye just a little to see tomorrow streaming toward you down the track!

You can almost feel the future of Santa Fe in the quickened tempo of its progress in the recent past.

Just count the growing number of Santa Fe diesels that speed your freight and smooth your ride today.

Nineteen years ago there weren't any. Today there are 1422 units. By year's end there'll be 97 more. Steam is disappearing fast. And more than 250 coaling and watering stations have bit the dust.

Santa Fe folks just don't dally when it comes to building new.

For today the Santa Fe is America's new railroad. And it's going to stay that way by growing newer every day—in every way that can mean new safety, better service, new comfort and dependability for you.

It costs millions of dollars to serve you so. But it doesn't add a penny to the taxes you pay. Santa Fe folks are proud of that, too—proud that the newness of the Santa Fe is a part of American progress that pays its own way.

Instrument Park Rezone Is Denied

The Pasadena Planning Commission last week denied the request by Consolidated Engineering Corporation for a change in zone to establish their "Instrument Park."

The commission pointed out the fact that Consolidated was attempting to rezone R-2 (residential) property for commercial uses, which zoning would leave the acreage open to manufacturing uses other than that of precision instruments.

Residents of the Hastings Ranch area and the homes west of Sierra Madre Villa had opposed the rezoning request at a previous public meeting of the Planning Commission, through petitions which carried more than 1000 names, and in letters of protest to the commission.

Parties in Hastings Homes Boost Nursery School Fund

The first bridge parties in a series being sponsored by the Hastings Ranch Nursery School as a part of their fund-raising program were given in the Ranch last week. Each of the ladies attending gave a donation of $1 for her ticket which also made her eligible for gifts which are being donated by merchants. Bridge prizes are being donated by the hostesses. Those who opened their homes for parties were:

Mrs. John de G. La Montagne, 3790 Landfair road, entertained 19 ladies in her home. Her guests were Meses. Walter Claus, Winfield Payne, Earl Jones, E. F. Brown, John Norman, Robert Rank, Warren Siliman, William Lansill, Marvin Gold, John Baker, John Osborn, Robert Cress, David Zinsmeyer, Richard Martin, Helmut Vorse, F. J. Landenberger, J. H. Hedrick, Blair Hyde and Dunbar Burdick. Among others who were unable to attend were: Meses. George Baughman, Elmer Morton, Ira Isaacson, Robert Croft and Robert Fleming.

At this party, Mrs. John Osborn received the merchant's gift, a beautiful rose bush donated by Ward's Nursery in Sierra Madre. Mrs. F. J. Landenberger won the bridge prize, a pair of gardening gloves attractively decorated with flowers.

Two tables of bridge and one of canasta met at the home of Mrs. Norman W. Anderson, 1145 Tropical. The merchant's gift was a nice box of groceries donated by Don's Market. Among those attending the party were Mrs. F. D. Scurr, Mrs. Harry S.

Field Frolics of '53 Promises To Be Super

The dads at Field School have been practicing every night, Monday through Friday, for their show, Field Frolics of '53, to be presented at the Field Cafetorium, May 8 and 9.

"We have had a good turnout of hard-working and most co-operative dads," Mr. Dick Hasbrook, in charge of the production, says. "It looks like we are going to have a wonderful show."

Everyone is invited to attend. The admission will be 75c for adults and 25c for children. Reservations will be accepted up to three days prior to the show and children will bring home envelopes for the ticket money, on the outside of which parents will be asked to designate which night they wish to attend the show. Those having children in the school are asked to contact Mr. Hasbrook at CU. 5-1930 for reservations.

There will be acts of singing, dancing, comedy and music in the variety show, which in the past years has filled the cafetorium to capacity.

Irish Rugby Team To Play In Rose Bowl

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Donald of 1205 Tropical recently made a trip to Berkeley to meet and watch the Queen's University rugby team of Ireland play two games with the University of California at Berkeley.

Mr. Donald is secretary of the Southern California Rugby Football Union, one of the sponsors of the Irish team in the United States.

The Queen's University team is one of the best in the world and has only lost two of the 37 games they have played since last October. The team arrived in Los Angeles last Monday for the last two games of a 10-game tour of British Columbia and California. One of these games was played last night in Santa Ana and the final game of the tour will be played next Saturday, April 25, at the Rose Bowl against UCLA at 3:00 p.m. There will be a preliminary game played for the state championship between the Northern California and Southern California All-Stars team at 1:30 at the Rose Bowl. Mr. Donald will play in this game on the Southern California All-Star team.

Field Queen Contest Still Open To Girls

Applications are still being received for the Field Queen to participate in the finals at which the Queen of the Sierra Madre Country Fair will be chosen. The judging of the contestants will be held at Field School Cafetorium on May 1, at which time the girls, dressed in street wear, will file in front of the judges platform.

Girls between the ages of 16 and 21 who are residents of the Field School district are eligible. Applications are being received by Mrs. Robert Butteane, 3335 Landfair road, Custer 5-1919.

Valentine, Den 2; Mrs. Charles Donaldson, Den 3 and Mrs. Henry Vis, Den 4, were introduced and thanked for the outstanding job they had done.

Dens 1 and 2 presented comedy skits and the closing ceremonies were led by members of Den 4.

Don Benito School presented a very nice show, for parents, last week. Those groups taking part in the entertainment were the Brownies, Blue Birds, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts. The program was made up of songs, dances and skits. Everyone had a wonderful time.

An afternoon square dancing group has been formed at Eugene Fields School. To make sure there would be an even number of boys and girls, the group has been limited to 30 boys and 30 girls. The group meets every Monday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

Last Tuesday, a bus from the Pasadena Y.M.C.A. took a group of boys from Eugene Fields School into the clubhouse where they enjoyed fun and games from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Character Education Theme For P-TA Meet

The Field P-TA meeting, last Wednesday night, had as its theme "The Family Participates in Youth Activities" and gave parents an outstanding picture of the vast number of character education groups in which their children have the opportunity of taking part.

At the beginning of the meeting, Mr. Haworth, principal, displayed the gifts which the P-TA has presented to the school—a Howell movie projector, and two daylight movie screens which will facilitate the use of movies in the classroom. He also announced that 41 tons of paper were collected in the recent drive, that there was still a need for more volunteers from the Dads for help in the coming variety show, May 8 and 9, and that Public Schools Week beginning April

Named President

Mrs. E. F. Brown, 3880 Shadow Grove road, is to be installed as president of Alpha Xi Delta sorority at their Founder's Day luncheon on April 18. The luncheon will be held at the Altadena Town and Country Club.

Mrs. Gaylord Holt, 3725 Denair avenue will be installed as rushing chairman at the same meeting.

Meanwhile the contractor agreed to complete the lodge and wait for his money until after the sale.

Each girl is being given a quota of a case (24 cans) of the peanuts to sell and upon meeting this quota, she will receive a Camp Chiquita ownership certificate.

The Camp Fire Girls are a Community Chest agency; however, the Community Chest provides money only for the operating budget of the organization and an annual sale is their chief means of supplementing their income for improving facilities of the two camps they maintain.

Camp Fire Girls Start Peanut Sale For Lodge

A sale of Circus Peanuts by Camp Fire Girls started last Saturday in the Ranch, as in the entire San Gabriel Valley area, and will continue until May 3.

Members of Camp Fire and its younger girls' division, Bluebirds, will be contacting their friends and neighbors in the Ranch in this sale of cans of peanuts which will cost 40c a can.

This year the girls of this district are particularly interested in the success of their sale since they have a very special concern in it, a share in the ownership of the Camp Fire Lodge which has just been completed at Camp Chiquita at the northern end of Fair Oaks avenue in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ladd Gifford of Pasadena gave $8,000 this last year towards the construction of this lodge, about three-quarters of the total building cost. For a time members of the Camp Fire Council discussed building until the money was used up and then waiting until more money could be raised for its completion. However, it was decided that the girls would like to have a share in the ownership of the building, so plans were made for the Peanut Sale, profits of which would go toward the cost of the building.

While in Las Vegas the Smiths stayed at the Flamingo Hotel.

Mrs. Smith's father, Mr. Arthur Nickman of Santa Anita Oaks, looked after the Smiths' two small sons, Gary and Rick, while their parents were on their desert holiday.

Set for April 26th

The last in a series of three benefit concerts featuring young California musicians will be presented at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, April 26, in the San Marino Woman's club, 1800 Huntington Drive, near West Drive.

Proceeds of the concerts will aid hospitalized soldiers, all Korean war casualties, according to the sponsors, California Artists with headquarters in Pasadena.

Among the patrons and patronesses of the series are Mrs. Louise Gude Funk, Alma Lowe Creighton and Mr. Charles Frederic Morse, all of Sierra Madre.

Appearing on the program of April 26 will be Patricia Beems, soprano, and Phil Harvey, baritone.

Miss Beems, who was a finalist in the Atwater Kent Additions has filled many concert engagements, including a 14-month tour with the Ice Follies, solo appearances with the Greater Los Angeles Chorus and Orchestra and has appeared in the Hollywood Bowl. She recently starred in Guild Opera's productions and was featured soloist on weekly television programs, "Melody Time."

Mr. Harvey, described as young and dramatic, is well known to audiences of the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera, the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts and many opera circles including the Los Angeles and Hollywood Euterpe Opera Reading clubs.

Gary W. Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail W. Griffin, 183 E. Laurel, has been accorded two honors at Pomona College where he is in his senior year.

He recently was elected to membership in the college's Gamma chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, highest undergraduate honor society and also has been awarded a teaching assistantship at the University of Illinois.

Mr. Griffin is majoring in chemistry. He was graduated in 1949 from John Muir High School and attended Muir College two years before enrolling at Pomona. He was a student demonstrator at the college's annual Science Day program last fall.

Following the example of the President, House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr. also signed up with Miss Pickford for the regular purchase of Savings Bonds.

Miss Pickford serves as Associate National Chairman of the committee which is currently conducting a Women's Crusade for Security, a campaign to increase sales of United States Savings Bonds through the systematic Bond-A-Month Plan.

'Country Girl'
At Playhouse
Until Apr. 26

Public response has given an extended run to Clifford Odets' backstage drama, "The Country Girl," which continues at the Pasadena Playhouse through April 26.

Wilton Graff, Eve McVeagh, and King Donovan star in this tale of a former stage star riding the bottle to catastrophe, when he meets a brilliant young director who offers him the chance of recovery.

As he struggles to right himself, he is aided by his wife in an intensely human story of one man's weakness, another man's faith, and the woman who holds them together.

Bobker ben Ali directs a polished cast including Richard Vath, Gayne Sullivan, Elaine Marcus, James Creson, and George Truitt.

Next attraction at the Playhouse is the Thomas Heggen-Joshua Logan hit-of-the-decade, "Mister Roberts," opening April 30.

FILM AT MISSION
PLAYHOUSE APRIL 27

Under the auspices of Elmer Wilson, Karl Robinson will present a color film travelogue of Turkey at the San Gabriel Mission Playhouse Monday evening, April 27. The film depicts modern Turkey where Marshall Plan tractors and whirling wheat combines are replacing ox-drawn plows and hand harvesting.

Tickets may be reserved at the Mission Playhouse box office, where the time of the performance will be announced.

Scanning
the Sports Scene

With BOB BROGGER

Well, it looks as if the Marshall "B" team is off to another interesting season. They lost to the Wilson team only 14-0!

No, it wasn't a football game, it's baseball season now. This was an unusual ball game! Naturally Marshall was discouraged by the fracas, but the fellows on the team (bless their hearts) kept reminding us that they only made nine errors, one less than they made last year!

Keep your eye on this Marshall team. They might surprise you and win the "B" championship.

The game between the Marshall and Wilson "A" teams was a much closer fight. This time Marshall came on top, winning by a score of 4-3. It was a fine pitching duel by Marshall's ace Jim Hezelep, and Wilson's great all-around athlete, Dutch Wing. But we cannot give Hezelep all the credit for the win, because Mickey Theilacker really deserves most of the glory. Mickey played a magnificent game, knocking in two runs to win the game with a single, and to top it off, making an unassisted double-play with the bases loaded and nobody out!

Mickey, who started as an outfielder earlier this year, is now playing second base for coach Pappas's squad. Mickey started that double-play by jumping up and catching a line-drive in the web of his mit, then ignoring throwing to second base, he ran over there beating the runner, and thus getting credit for an unassisted double-play. It looks like Mickey's going to be great in baseball, too. There must be one sport in which he's weak. But try and find it!

Mike McNally, the Cleveland Indian's farm chief, tells how his wife discovered early in their married life at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., that ball games often last extra innings.

"But she didn't know much about prize fights," McNally added. "So this night I went to a boxing show with a few of the boys and didn't get home until 1:30 in the morning. My bride naturally wondered what had happened to me."

"The fight," I told her, "lasted 43 rounds. You wouldn't want me to walk out on that kind of battle, would you?"

Coleman Association
Plans New Music For
50th Anniversary

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Coleman Chamber Music Association of Pasadena, the group founded by the late Alice Coleman Batchelder has commissioned two works during the 1953-54 season.

Paul Creston is writing a "Suite for Viola, Flute and Piano," to be performed by Virginia Majewska of the American Art Quartet and assisting artists.

Ernst Toch is at work on a string quartet for the New Music Quartet.

In addition to the regular fall and winter series, there will be summer-fall outdoor concerts at famous Pasadena gardens.

Coleman president Dr. Douglas Wright Jr. has appointed James N. Wright as 50th anniversary chairman.

Feichtmann Reports
On Business Show

George Feichtmann, 10 E. Bonita, vice-president of the Los Angeles Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants, reported that the success of the Sixth Annual Southern California Business Show and the forthcoming national convention to be held in Los Angeles will make 1952-53 the most successful year in the chapter's 29-year history.

Bigger and more elaborate in every way, the Business Show was attended by well over 15,000 business men, students and accountants from Santa Barbara to San Diego, according to statistics just released.

Reports emanating from the national headquarters in New York City indicate an unprecedented attendance of some 4000 members from the association's 115 chapters at the thirty-fourth Annual International Cost Conference to be held at the Hotel Statler and Biltmore Hotel, June 14-19, 1953.

Lcdr. Wright Returns
To Civilian Life

Lcdr. Robert E. Wright returned to his home at 540 West Alegria last week after six months as a patient in the U.S. Naval Hospital at San Diego.

Lieutenant Commander Wright, who was on duty at the Naval Station in San Diego before his illness, has been given a physical disability retirement from the Navy which he entered in 1943.

Local Homes Described As 'Opportunity'

Homes in Sierra Madre not only represent choice properties to sell general home seekers, but they also offer a splendid opportunity for a real estate broker to select the home that particularly appeals to him. This is the belief of John H. Curtis, owner and operator of the Sierra Madre Realateria, formerly owned and operated by John H. Osgood.

Mr. Curtis and his wife, who is also actively engaged in the real estate business at the Realateria office, have just purchased Grill Rock, the attractive home at 565 Las Rocas, owned for the past several years by Mrs. Mabel Grill.

The Sierra Madre Realateria, now going on three years in operation across from the post office, is the original center of John H. Curtis, who is president and manager of National Realateria, Inc. This corporation provides the type of real estate displays used at the local Realateria office to brokers in many other locations in California, as well as other western and southwestern states.

"During the past six months that we have been actively engaged in the real estate business in Sierra Madre," said Curtis, "we have sold many homes here. We believe Sierra Madre has a great future as one of Southern California's finest residential communities."

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis are moving to Sierra Madre from Eagle Rock, where Mr. Curtis is well known as a past president of the Optimist Club in that city. For a year and a half prior to going into business locally, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis were in real estate business in San Gabriel.

APRIL MARKS . . .

School have appeared in many professional and lay magazines devoted to childhood education. It has even brought visitors to Sierra Madre for the express purpose of visiting the Nursery School.

To help extend the services of the Nursery School to all pre-school children in the community, the Elizabeth Woods Scholarship Fund was set up. All royalties from the book go into the fund, which in turn helps defray the daily operating expenses of the Nursery School.

Sixth Anniversary

The school itself was started six years ago this month by a group of 20 parents who wanted the best in nursery school programs for their children. It was held in the Congregational Church and in the City Park.

In 1949, the steadily increasing enrollment indicated the need for larger quarters. Early in 1950, after a community-wide fund-raising drive, the new school was completed on the City water grounds. Part of the work was contracted, but a large portion was done by the fathers. Two large indoor play areas and three outside play areas for the three different age groups were provided at a total cost of approximately $8000.

Dedicated to City

In July, 1950, the Nursery School building was dedicated and given to the City of Sierra Madre.

Since the move to the new school building, the average daily attendance has increased to 60 pre-school children from Sierra Madre and its environs, who attend on two, three and five day schedules.

This growth necessitated the addition of another indoor play area and a combination parents' room and office, which was completed in December, 1952.

The Nursery School is staffed by a Director, three professional teachers, nurse and janitor, who are paid personnel. In addition, some of the mothers of enrolled children act as regular assistants to the teachers. All other mothers give one day a month as helpers.

Parents Work

Practically all maintenance work of the building and play equipment is done by the parents. The fathers have their regular monthly work days.

Sponsoring agency for the school is the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association, a non-profit organization, and its Board of Trustees is the governing body. The Executive Committee, made up of the officers of the Association and

CORRECT POSTURE FOR HEALTH

A good diet is just as natural as good posture, and both are essential for good health. But who in this modern world lives naturally? Most of us have not learned what is a good balanced and complete diet any more than we have developed good balanced posture. The average person is not only un-informed on both subjects, but is also totally disinterested.

You can get any one to readily agree that a balanced diet and correct posture are obviously essential for health. The same person will instantly dismiss the subject and do nothing about either.

Next week when he or she comes down with a cold they will rush in a panic to the nearest drug store to purchase over the counter some "latest nostrum," as though health could be bought over a counter, when reasonable attention to good diet and good posture would have given adequate resistance to colds and such like.

Yes, it all sounds like human stupidity is hopeless. Yet there HAS to be some way to get people to do something about the simple things which are so important to their well-being. I believe there IS a way.

standing committee chairmen, is the administrative body. A Professional Advisory Board serves as professional counsel.

Financing

Financing of the Nursery School operations is on a cost-sharing basis, supplemented by services from the parents and other interested members of the Association. The low monthly contributions are based on a pro-rata daily cost schedule and are made only if the parents are able to do so. No child is denied enrollment because of race, color, creed or financial inability to share in the cost of operations.

In addition to the above program, the extra funds necessary for equipment and maintenance are raised by the Ways and Means Committee through their yearly Rummage Sale and occasional fund-raising activities. The Nursery School Auxiliary also assists with the proceeds from their annual Fashion Show-Tea and other projects. The Nursery School also shares in the Community Chest Fund.

Social Activities

The Annual Christmas Dance and the Family Picnic in June provide social activities. There are monthly educational meetings, at which experts in the various phases of pre-school education and training are guest speakers. Weekly staff meetings are held for the mothers for training in nursery education methods, as part of the reciprocal parent-child educational program.

A Tribute

Upon entering its seventh year, the Nursery School stands as a tribute to the citizens of Sierra Madre, the parents, the City Council, the Service Clubs, the Congregational Church, the teaching staff—in other words, the community that made it possible.

MAKE THIS YOUR EPITAPH

"He was helpful in the art of living together" is perhaps the highest compliment which can be paid to any one of us. It has been earned by thousands of persons who devote their lives to the service of their fellow-beings. It should become the major effort of every individual.—Dr. J. Richard Sneed, First Methodist Church, Los Angeles.

CHARACTER . . .

27 would be observed by an invitation to parents to visit class rooms during that week.

Mrs. James Stivers, Chairman of Character Education, introduced the program of the evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Faiman, in charge of the Pasadena Girl's Club, gave a talk on their activities which include baton lessons, tap, folk, and dramatic dancing, a Teen Club, "cook-out" luncheons, and many types of craft.

Mr. Paul Mechler explained another group, the Indian Y Guides, a group of boys from the first and second grades, and their fathers. The tribes are limited to nine members and in Field there are two tribes. The boys and their fathers recited their pledge and showed their crafts for the year.

Mrs. Ray Lindman introduced a Brownie group of fourth graders who sang a song and gave their pledge. She pointed out that there are approximately 80 of this organization in Field. Her next group was from the Girl Scouts who number 63 at this school. Part of a fifth grade group then demonstrated a singing folk dance.

Introduced by Mrs. Paul Mechler, seven of the Bluebirds gave their pledge, showed samples of crafts, and sang. There are 14 in all in her troop.

Mr. James Stivers, substituting for Mr. John Atkinson who is Cub scoutmaster presented a group of the oldest Cubs, the Webelos Den, and the six boys gave their yell. Following these, two boys from the newest Boy Scout troop at the school proudly showed their new uniforms.

The meeting closed with a talk by Mr. Harvey Link of the East Pasadena Boys Club. This club takes boys from 8 to 18 years of age, and its activities are of a diversified nature, from the special interest types such as model railroad, and stamps, to sports of all kinds. Mr. Link explained that the boys are the administrators of the club as well as the owners. He also explained that so far the club, only a few years old, but with a membership of 940, has been more concerned with programming for the boys from 8 to 12 years of age, their object to build character in the boys as a preventative measure and not as a cure. He then showed graphs which gave a picture of interests and background of their members—most of them like crafts, next games and a small number gym. The out-of-town members are 10 per cent, almost 2½, were it not for being at the club would be going home to an unsupervised home where both the mothers and fathers are working, and almost one-half have no religion, a problem the church leaders of the district are working on by visiting in the homes.
